WM. E. PELL, Proprietor

[Special Washington (Oct. 17) Correspondence of the Boston Post, Democratic.]

THE DEMOCRATS WON'T SURRENDER.

Hon. Montgomery Blair received a letter to-day from the editor of the New York World, urging the withdrawal of the Democratic Presidential candidates and the substitution of Chief Justice Chase, with a suitable man for the second place on the ticket. Judge Blair promptly replied, indignantly repudiating the suggestion and expressing his astonishment at its folly.—The article which appeared in the columns of the Intelligencer this morning, and which was sent from here by telegraph last evening, was written before the reception of the telegram from Messrs. Tilden, Belmont and Schell, repudiating what they denominated the foolish freak of the World, and had not copies of the Intelligencer's article been furnished to the Radical correspondents, it would have been suppressed. Its appearance produced a storm of indignation among the Democrats here, who, without exception, ridiculed the nonsense of the New York World. They are proud of the fight policemen made, and profess to see no grounds for discouragement. In Philadelphia there were 1,000 people taxed $30 each to aid in carrying that city. These thousand men controlled, no doubt, more votes than would have given the State of Pennsylvania to the Democrats. The Mayor elect is a democrat, and this police influence will all be thrown against the Radical ticket at the November election, which may materially change the result in the State. The Democratic leaders here are full of ardor, and will go into the November contest with high hopes of success. No one is louder in denouncing the folly of the New York World than President Johnson, who laughs at the crowing of the Radicals. He says another such victory annihilates them as a party. He professes to-day strong confidence in the election of Seymour and Blair. The story that Chief Justice Chase had been appealed to to enter the list as Seymour's successor on the Democratic ticket is without any foundation in truth. Judge Chase, in alluding to the subject this evening, expressed his astonishment that any one pretending to have a particle of political sagacity should be guilty of the folly exhibited in the columns of the New York World. When the World's article reached this city, so great was the indignation felt that a meeting of the Jackson Democratic Association was called and the following resolution unanimously adopted:—

Resolved, by the Jackson Democratic Association of the City of Washington, That we pledge ourselves to redouble our exertions to secure the triumphant election of Seymour and Blair.

This association, organized more than 30 years ago, is the representative of the Democracy here, and the above resolution indicates clearly the determination of the party, so far as this District is concerned.—Telegrams have also been received to-day by the National Executive Committee from nearly all the State Executive Committees, pledging increased vigor and confidently predicting the triumphant election of Seymour and Blair.

ARKANSAS.

More Particulars of the Seizure of the Steamboat Hesper.

MEMPHIS, TENN., October 17.—The destruction of the arms on board the steamer Hesper is still the cause of much excitement. The Democratic papers assert that the arms were destroyed by Radicals to make political capital, and that they were not the property of the State of Arkansas. The Republican papers assert that the arms were destroyed by Ku Klux. Captain John Ford, of the steam-tug Nettie Jones, which was lately seized by the raiders, gives the particulars of the seizure, which are, in substance, as follows:

The steam-tug Nettie Jones, Captain Ford, at the wharf on Thursday afternoon for Pickering, having a barge in tow. The tug reached her destination and landed a line, but had scarcely made fast when the scene was covered by men, seemingly masked, probably one hundred in number. They quickly boarded the tug, took possession of the pilot-house and engine room, and ordered the Captain to start down the river. He accordingly ordered one of the men to cast off the line, and in a few minutes the tug was rapidly steaming down the river through the chute. Upon taking possession the new commander kept a vigilant eye on the crew, not allowing one of them to leave his post. The engineer was not permitted to oil the machinery. When approaching Cat Island, twenty-five miles below, and near the Arkansas shore, Captain Ford was ordered to run the tug alongside of the little steamer Hesper, which was tied up wooding. During the trip the leaders of the party informed Captain Ford that they intended overhauling the Hesper and destroying the arms, but strict orders had been issued to the men to harm no one, and to respect all other property. In obedience to orders, Captain Ford ran the tug alongside, which was no sooner accomplished than, leaving two of their number in the pilot-house, two in the engine room, and one in the cabin, as a guard over one of the crew, who had insulted their leader, the party sprang aboard the Hesper. Little or nothing was said by the boarders, who evidently had an eye to business. They placed the crew under surveillance, and commenced the work in hand. The gun boxes were broken open, the arms taken out and thrown into the river. Many guns were broken before they were thrown overboard. A large quantity of ammunition in the hold, marked "sundries," was also thrown overboard. The party then quietly returned to the tug, leaving the Hesper in possession of her crew. Captain Houston, of the Hesper, and his brother, made for the woods as soon as the Nettie was seen. At midnight the tug reached Point President's Island, in the chute below the city, and was run aground. The raiders were taken ashore in a skiff which was signalled. Strict orders were given to Captain Ford to remain in the chute till daylight. The tug returned to the city this morning.

THE NEGRO AND THE NORTH.—A citizen of this town stopped in Philadelphia a few weeks since. While he was walking along one of the streets of that city he met up with a colored man who asked him if he wasn't from the South. He told him that he was. The negro remarked that he had come from Virginia, that he had no money, was half starved, and wanted to get back to his old home.—Milton (N. C.) Chronicle.

NORTH CAROLINA!

THE VOTE IN THE APRIL ELECTION.

We publish below, for the sake of reference, the official tabular statement of the vote in the April election in this State.—The 29,774, who did not vote, were men who were registered, and entitled to vote, at the time of the election. In addition to this, it may be safely estimated that 12,000 men in the State are now enfranchised, who could not vote before.

THE UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

A GOOD MAN Leaveth an INHERITANCE

Losses paid in 30 days. No restrictions on TRAVEL or RESIDENCE. No extra charge for Females. No charge for Medical Examination, Policies or stamps.

NEW YORK.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

Office, No. 60, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the 'Universal' the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured, contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent greater, and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent, payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effort of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Rates to Secure $1.000 at Death.

AGE.	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate	AGE.	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate.

35	19.78	40.53	55	44.38	60 73
40	23.47	43.51	60	60 81	83 80

All the improved descriptions of Life and Endowment Policies issued on the Stock plan a greatly reduced rates.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing the return of all premiums paid in addition to the amount insured.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing a reduction of fifty per cent. of the premium after the third annual payment.

The undersigned having been appointed General Agents for the States of North and South Carolina, for the above STERLING Company, desire Agents in all the principal towns and sections in said States. MISCELLANEOUS.

NOTICE.

THE OFFICE OF THE ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE Co. has been removed to the upper rooms over the Clothing Store of Messrs Andrews & Co., and adjoining the Messrs. Tucker's Hall, where the public are invited to an examination of all the official Reports of the various Insurance Companies of America. Their progress and standing may thus be easily and reliably ascertained. The progress of the old Ætna as thus to be seen, will not fail to secure confidence and patronage of those desiring to provide for themselves or families. This Company has promptly met seventy thousand dollars in death losses in North Carolina within three years. And, as a guarantee for the future, has now assets over and one hundred and twenty dollars to pay every one hundred of her liabilities. To the weary and anxious enquirer for a place of safe investment, and while in health and strength upon the subscriber and obtain from $1,000 to $10,000. Delays are often fatal.

THE RADICAL ORGAN'S ADVICE TO RADICAL CANVASSERS.

Here is the advice given by the Raleigh Standard to the canvassers of its party in North Carolina. Here is the PEACE to which we are invited by the election of GRANT and COLFAX. Here are the necessities requiring Holden's six thousand DETAILED MILITIA. MEN OF NORTH CAROLINA, read this insult to your mothers, your wives and your daughters, and learn the purposes of the cowardly adventurers who are now governing your State. Says the Standard:

"BUT WHEREVER ELSE YOU WORK, DON'T FORGET TO WORK AMONG THE WOMEN. THE CONFEDERACY WOULDN'T HAVE LASTED A YEAR IF IT HADN'T BEEN FOR THEM. OUR GOOD REBEL WOMAN IS WORTH A DOZEN REBEL MEN. GO AFTER THE WOMEN THEN. THEY WILL MAKE THEIR HUSBANDS SHOUT FOR GRANT AND COLFAX UNTIL THEY ARE HOARSE, IF YOU WILL. MANAGE TO REPLACE SOME OF THE DIAMOND RINGS AND LACES FRANK BLAIR STOLE FROM THEM WHEN HE WAS HERE. AND DON'T HESITATE TO THROW YOUR ARMS AROUND THEIR NECKS NOW AND THEN WHEN THEIR HUSBANDS ARE NOT AROUND, AND GIVE THEM A GOOD——! THEY ALL LIKE IT, AND THE YANKEES TOO ARE THE BETTER IT TASTES. OUR EXPERIENCE WITH FEMALE BEING IS, THAT WITH ALL THEIR SINS, THEY HAVE A VAST AMOUNT OF HUMAN NATURE, AND ONLY WANT TO HAVE IT APPRECIATED TO BE THE MOST LOVING CREATURES IMAGINABLE. SCALAWAGS AND CARPET-BAGGERS! DON'T FAIL, THEREFORE, AS YOU CANVASS THE STATE, TO LOOK AFTER THE WOMEN. YOU ARE ALL GOOD LOOKING AND THEY KNOW IT, BUT WITH NATIVE MODESTY, LIKE NEW ENGLAND GIRLS, THEY LIKE TO BE APPROACHED FIRST — DON'T BE AFRAID OF THEIR EYES—THEY GLARE LIKE YOUNG LEOPARDS BY DAY LIGHT, BUT UNDER THE MOON NO BLUE DEATH-STRICKEN FAWN'S IS HALF SO TENDER OR HALF SO DEEP. DON'T READ JUDGE PEARSON'S LETTER TO THEM, BUT GIVE THEM BYRON AND SHELLEY IN VOLUMES AND YOU WILL HAVE THEM IN YOUR ARMS, IF NOT IN YOUR PANTS, IN LESS THAN A WEEK."

THE SPIRIT OF THE NORTHERN DEMOCRACY.

If the tone of the Democratic press and speakers of the North indicate the real temper of the people, it is evident that the spirit of the Democratic people is neither broken nor discouraged by the results of the recent elections. In Pennsylvania and Indiana, especially, as well as in Ohio, they are preparing for an earnest and glorious effort in November.

The large aid received by the Radicals from the outpouring of money and the polling of fraudulent votes, as well as the large number of Democratic votes thrown out by the Radical poll-holders, lead our friends now to speak, with much confidence, of success in the Presidential contest. The same agencies and influences, it is believed, cannot be brought to bear upon that election. The fact that 8,000 votes of recently naturalized persons are said to have been thrown out in Pennsylvania alone, beside the accession of a large number of colonized voters from other States who will be needed at home, in November, encourages the Democracy of Pennsylvania to speak with assurance. In Ohio, a large negro vote was polled in the strong Radical precincts, in direct violation of law, and the carpet-baggers are said to have been colonized both in Ohio and Indiana.

In all these States, there were tremendous gains, showing that the hearts of the people are with the Democracy. As the direct question of negro suffrage entered largely into the canvass in Ohio, last year, it is difficult to tell what the real strength of the Radicals was on the general issues now involved. In 1863, the Republican majority in Ohio was 100,000. In 1864, 59,000; in 1865, 29,000; in 1866, 43,000. But in 1867, owing to the introduction of the negro suffrage question, in the contest for Governor, Judge Thurman was only beaten by about 3,000. This year, their majority is estimated at from 10,000 to 15,000 on the State ticket, yet, on the Congressional vote, the majority is only about 6,000!! This shows an enormous falling off from 1866, when they elected members of Congress, and when their majority was 43,000. There is good ground, therefore, to expect a more favorable vote for the Democracy in the Presidential contest, when the real issues will be more fully brought into the field. The Democracy, however, hope for a more decisive success, and on better grounds, in Pennsylvania and Indiana, than in Ohio, on the 3rd. of November.

Looking steadily at all the facts, THERE IS NO GROUND FOR DESPONDENCY, much less for faint heartedness or indifference! When the people come to look the issues in the face and weigh well the consequences of the continuance of Radical rule, they cannot hesitate to cast all selfish considerations aside, and give their votes for the Constitution and the Union and for Seymour and Blair.

In North Carolina, there is everything to stimulate our people to the utmost activity and zeal to carry the election against Radicalism and its leaders. Let our watch-fires be kindled afresh, and let us WORK and LOOK FOR THE BREAKING OF THE DAY!

STIR UP your friends to REGISTER AND VOTE. Don't neglect this. Remember we MUST carry North Carolina for Seymour and Blair, on the 3rd. of November.

A CHANGE OF CANDIDATES.

We had supposed, from the tenor of our telegrams on Monday night, that the question of a change of candidates had been hushed. Tuesday night's telegrams, however, show that the matter is still agitated, and it is now plain that the chief objection is to Gen. Blair and to the constructions put upon his letter by the Republicans or Radicals.

The noble declarations of Gen. Blair at St. Louis, on the 15th inst., in his speech,—"It will be no sacrifice to me, or, rather, it will be a work of pleasure to me, to surrender that position, whenever, by so doing, I can add one vote to strengthen the Democracy in this State, or in other States,"—show that he is ready to obey the behests of the party, to retire from the candidacy for the Vice Presidency at its bidding. Mr. Seymour has uttered nearly similar sentiments.

In what we have said, in regard to the proposed change of candidates, we have not intended to convey the idea, that we have any special preference for any candidate.—The Democrats and Conservatives of North Carolina, and, indeed, of the whole South, in accepting the proposition of our brethren of the North to meet them in the National Democratic Convention, did nothing to control its action, either in the framing of the platform or in the selection of the candidates. They were entirely willing to leave the whole matter to the convictions and choice of the Northern Democrats and Conservatives, and they voted for a particular position or principle in the platform, and for a particular candidate brought forward, only as the wishes of a majority of the Northern delegates were indicated, in order to give their sanction to whatever that majority thought best. This is our understanding of the matter.

Since the Convention, the Southern Democrats and Conservatives have warmly supported both the platform and the candidates, not simply because they approved of them, but for the additional reason that they supposed they were as warmly endorsed and approved by the Northern Democrats and Conservatives as by themselves.

If in this they are mistaken, while they would not suggest changes themselves, they will not hesitate to co-operate with and support any changes which the Northern Democrats and Conservatives, who act in good faith with the Democratic party, may determine are imperiously necessary to success.

The Democrats and Conservatives of the South have held themselves bound only by the platform, and not by the views of Mr. Seymour or Gen. Blair, uttered prior to their nomination. They have taken Mr. Seymour's letter of acceptance, in connection with the platform, as the only official and authoritative exposition of the policy of his administration, if elected, and have supported Mr. Seymour and Gen. Blair only upon that policy.

Our difficulty is just here: The proposition to change comes too late for most of the Southern States. Our telegraphic and mail facilities are so meagre, that it requires one month to spread news, generally, over this State. Besides, our tickets are generally made up and printed. All these difficulties, however, may be overcome, by the fact that we vote for Electors, by general ticket, and those Electors cast the vote for President and Vice President, and they will doubtless cast the vote in accordance with the expressed will of the party, now supporting the present ticket, if changes should be made. Yet if a change is made, at this late day, the ticket would lose any force or advantage in the South, for the reasons stated, which might be given to it by the change.

BE ON THE ALERT, friends of Seymour and Blair! See that all our friends REGISTER AND VOTE!

THE TRUE SPIRIT!

A worthy friend from Panther Branch District, in this county, was in our office, on yesterday. Speaking of the results of the recent elections in the Northern States, he declared himself not only undismayed, but inspired with fresh courage and resolution. "I shall work unremittingly, from now until the election," said he, "to help carry the Union; failing in that, to carry North Carolina; failing in that, to carry Wake county; but, failing in that, to carry Panther Branch District!"

This is the genuine grit, and we commend the example to our friends everywhere. If every true Democrat and Conservative in the Union will labor to carry his own precinct, without thinking of what others may or may not do, victory will crown our banners in the great national struggle! Let every man labor at home faithfully and untiringly, and [illegible]

BE AT THE REGISTRATION! Let no improper person [illegible] Challenge improper persons at the registration!

PENNSYLVANIA.—Mayor Hoffman, of New York, has a letter from Hon. Reuster Clymer, of Pennsylvania, giving great encouragement as to the political prospect in that State. The enthusiasm of the Pennsylvania Democracy is unabated, and they have entered upon the work before them with redoubled vigor.

WEST VIRGINIA.—This States votes today, and is the last of the States that vote before the Presidential election. The candidates for Governor are J. F. Camden, Democrat, and W. Stephenson, Radical. Last year, the Radical majority was 6,644.

INDIANA.—The Louisville Courier says: "Illinois unquestionably carried the election in Indiana, Tuesday, with the ten thousand votes she sent over to Northern Indiana."

NORTH CAROLINA is certain for the Democracy, if our friends only will it. We are rejoiced to see evidences that their determination to win is undiminished. Press on, true men! Victory is before you!

REGISTER! Do not forget it. Every thing depends upon your registration and your vote.

ONLY ONE BOX!

Under this caption, the Woman Inviter of this City parades the following opinion of the stripling Attorney General, Mr. W. M. Coleman, which, it says, "settles the question" to which it refers:

TO HIS EXCELLENCY, W. W. HOLDEN:

I have carefully considered the ordinances of the late Convention, and the acts of the last session of the General Assembly, and I am clearly of the opinion that, at the approaching election, the candidates for Congress, for Electors of President, and for such vacancies in the General Assembly as may exist, should be voted for on the same slip of paper, and in the same ballot-box.

WM. M. COLEMAN,
Attorney General.

We have heretofore published the following opinion upon the same subject from the eminent legal gentlemen, whose names are attached, and to which could have been obtained, if necessary, the signatures of every lawyer in the City of Raleigh:

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 19th, 1868.

In our view there is nothing in the Ordinances of the late Convention, or in the acts of the last session of the General Assembly, that repeals the provisions of law heretofore in force as regards the number of boxes required in case candidates for different offices are voted for at the same place and on the same day.

We are therefore of opinion that at the approaching election the candidates for Congress, for Electors of President, and for such vacancies in the General Assembly as may exist, should be voted for in separate boxes,—one box or one set of boxes for each office.

ED. GRAHAM HAYWOOD,
DANIEL G. FOWLE,
SAML. F. PHILLIPS,
B. F. MOORE,
THOMAS BRAGG.

"Gov." Holden would do well to be chary of acting upon the "opinions" of his ductile "Attorney General." This latter functionary got his illustrious Chief into a dilemma once before, when he ran a foolish tilt against Messrs. Moore, Merrimon and Haywood, in the matter of the municipal government of Raleigh. Upon the principle of a "burnt child dreading the fire," his "Excellency" ought to have learned a little wisdom in this direction. But party malice has so blinded our wonderful "Governor," that it is said he regards Coleman as equal to Kent, Marshall, Story and Taney combined. Such briefless barristers as Messrs. Moore, Haywood, Bragg, Phillips and Fowle may therefore stand aside before the distended green bag of this "Attorney General!"

Now we undertake to say that this "opinion" of Coleman does not "settle the question," nor has the Governor any right to interfere in this matter to defeat the plain intent of the law,—any more than he had a right to violate the will of the people of Nash and Haywood, and to oust County Commissioners of their choice, who were eligible and had qualified. For either usurpation, he renders himself liable to impeachment. The law "settles the question," and the law heretofore in existence, and not repealed by any ordinance of Convention or Act of Assembly, is plain and explicit that voting for different offices must be on separate ballots and in distinct boxes.

We warn Inspectors of election, that, by permitting a different mode of voting, not only will the election be vitiated, but they will render themselves liable to indictment. Let the Solicitors,—men sworn to do their duty,—look to this matter!

For the Sentinel.

TAXATION! TAXATION!!

EDITORS SENTINEL:—Will you please call the attention of the public to this view of the taxation subject:

1. North Carolina contains 43,000 square miles, making 27,500,000 acres. Allowing this to be worth $5 an acre, the value will $137,500,000. Dividing this by $300 we have 458,333,33, to be multiplied by $3, which makes $917,000, the land tax.

2. Allowing every white and black voter to pay his poll-tax, we have from this source $430,000.

3. Putting this to the land, and our revenue, from these two sources, reaches $1,347,000.

4. Now the interest alone on the public debt is over $1,000,000,—leaving $347,000 to defray all the expenses, ordinary and extra-ordinary, of the State government.

5. It does not seem possible for the expenses for next year to fall short of the common estimate, $2,500,000. To meet this, we above found $1,347,000. Now where will the balance, $1,153,000, be found?

6. It will be seen that while the expenses are low, at the lowest figure, the revenue estimate is too large by one half. If this is true, there appears a deficit of $1,826,500.

7. In a late letter, Holden says the interest on the public debt will be promptly met. The new Constitution ordains that the machinery of government shall be in operation at a very early day. The expenses will be made and will be met.

8. In his inaugural, Holden said the poll and $300 worth property tax could not be more than $2.

9. If I am not misinformed, the State owns internal improvements to a large amount. Is it not probable that these improvements will be sold at a sacrifice, to meet our expenditures? It seems that the whole game of reconstruction has been played with some such view.

10. The direct tax will engage the attention of the rich. The poor men may look at such facts as these: Calico, that formerly cost 10 and 12½ cents, now costs 20 and 25 cents. If your wife wants some coffee and sugar, she must pay, not 8 and 10 cents, but 16 and 20 cents. Shoes, formerly selling for 1.25 or 1.50, now bring 2.50 or 3.00. Everything doubles, at least.

11. The worst of the whole feature is that, each year, our people must be ground down to meet this enormous tax, until 1880; then we must begin to pay the principal. Then the mill will grind heavily.

12. I am sorry for the poor. The rich can and will have the comforts and some of the luxuries of life, but the poor man's family must go without them.

POOR.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON AND THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDACY.—Washington, October 18.—The many representations made in various newspapers that President Johnson would be a candidate for the Presidency in case of the withdrawal of Mr. Seymour are without foundation. There is the best authority for saying that President Johnson has neither approved the proposition to withdraw Seymour's name, nor intimated a willingness to accept such a nomination, but, on the contrary, has looked upon the proposition for a change of candidates as injudicious and ill timed.

Speech of General Blair at St. Louis.

MANLY AND PATRIOTIC SENTIMENTS.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 16.

At least 5,000 persons participated in the serenade to Gen. Blair, who, after stating that he was neither discouraged nor dismayed by the results of the recent elections, referred at length to the issues in Missouri. He spoke as follows:

"MY FELLOW-CITIZENS:—I am the candidate of the Democratic party (cheers) for a very distinguished position, and I expect to be the candidate of the party so long as they desire it, (renewed cheers;) so long as it can avail to help the great cause which we all have at heart. But, my fellow-citizens, it will be no sacrifice to me, or, rather, it will be a work of pleasure to me, to surrender that position, whenever by so doing I can add one vote to strengthen the Democracy in this State, or in other States.—[Immense cheering.]

I am not a candidate for the purpose of embarrassing, frustrating, or defeating the principles which have my cordial support. When I cease to be of use in one capacity, I am ready to serve in another, (cheers,) and I call upon you, my fellow-citizens, to-night, to make every sacrifice for the great cause we have all espoused. As I now call upon you, not to hesitate to make every sacrifice demanded to gain for us a victory, so am I ready to go anywhere and do anything; to take upon myself any burden, to lay down any power, which may have been conferred upon me heretofore. (Cheers.)

And this, my fellow-citizens, brings me to allude to that rumor which is in our midst to-day. It has been said that both the candidates for the Presidency and the Vice Presidency have signified their willingness to decline in behalf of some other candidates. All that I have to say is that both candidates have always been, from the moment they were nominated to this moment, and will always be, ready to lay down their candidacy when it will no longer be of service to the Democratic party of the country, (cheers,) and if it should be thought now—if it should be believed—that by so doing we could add to the strength of the Democratic party and give it a better chance of victory—you will find that you were not mistaken either in your candidate for the Presidency or Vice Presidency. They will justify the great honor you have conferred on them by showing they are not unworthy, and not insensible of the honor. (Voices—'We do not want a change; that is for you to say.')

I shall be with you again before this election is over; I do not intend to retire from the field. I mean to bear my share in this battle—whether in the ranks, or as an officer, depends upon the wishes of the Democratic party; and I do not desire, my fellow citizens, that you should express yourselves upon that subject now; I desire that it should be considered by you calmly, dispassionately, without regard to the feelings of any man, because the feelings of individuals are nothing in the scale as compared with the success and restoration of the Government of our country."

For the Sentinel.

THE DISTILLATION TAX.

OLIN, N. C., Oct. 19, 1868.

Editors Sentinel:—Commissioner Rollins has recently issued an order, to the effect that brandy, distilled from apples, is exempted from paying the special tax; and there are those who claim for Mr. Boyden the merit of procuring this to be done.—Now, the truth of the matter is, that neither Mr. Boyden, nor any other Radical, nor any Radical newspaper, had any agency, proper, in this matter,—only so far as to serve a party purpose, and they can lay merit to no claim for relieving the people of an injurious and outrageous burden. But for the clamor raised by the Democratic press of the State, against the injustice and outrage of this tax, and the fear of losing many votes to the Radical party, the tax would still rest upon the shoulders of the people. Whatever of gratitude may be due any one from the people, for the lifting of this tax, is due to the Conservative press of the State, who exposed and battled against the outrage. It was the men who will vote for F. E. Shober, that got the tax removed—those who conduct the Democratic press of the State.

Winchester Repeating Rifle!
TWO SHOTS A SECOND!!

THE ATTENTION of Dealers and Sportsmen is invited to this improved weapon, now becoming extremely popular wherever it is known. Gen. Wade Hampton says of it:

"I regard the 'Winchester' as the most effective fire-arm I have ever seen. Its accuracy is remarkable, while its range and penetration equal any gun I have used. In my opinion, it is the best breech-loader yet invented."

Two sizes are made: A rifle, weighing nine and a-half pounds and carrying seventeen shots in magazine. Price $48.50. And a Carbine, weighing seven and a half pounds and carrying thirteen shots in magazine. Price $40. Cartridges $2 per hundred. Calibre of both arms is same as Colt's Army Pistol, 44-10 inch.

Ten per cent. discount on orders for 10 arms of a kind.

Sent by Express, C. O. D., on receipt of 20 per cent. of price. Liberal terms to dealers. For descriptive Circulars, &c., address

NOTICE.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY has paid another loss. Read the following:

$3.000.

WILMINGTON, Sept. 16th, 1868.

Received of the Ætna Life Insurance Company, by the hands of W. H. CROW, General Agent, Three thousand dollars, in full payment of all demands upon the Life Policy of my deceased husband, Larkin F. Bunn. No. of said Policy 48,788.
With many thanks for this prompt payment in the hour of my affliction and need,
I am, respectfully,
HESTER A. BUNN.

Added to the above, may be mentioned another fact, proving the wisdom and beneficial results of Life Insurance, and also the fidelity and good faith in which this old and well tried Company deals with its members.

In less than three years this Company has done more than all others combined, to relieve the wants of the widows and orphans of North Carolina.

It has paid Policy, No.	15,273	$5,000

SEYMOUR AND BLAIR!

There will be a meeting of the Seymour and Blair men of the City, on this (Thursday) evening, at 7½ o'clock, at the Court House.

The Hon. Josiah Turner, and, probably Henry K. Nash, Esq., of Hillsboro, will be present and address the people.

NEGROES DRILLING.—We are reliably informed that there was a negro drilling at Tupper's Church, in this city, on Monday night, and that an abortive effort was made, with a Band of Music, &c., to beat up recruits for some purpose. Do the Radicals want to get rid of the negroes, after the election, by sending them out to fight the Indians? Holden, Howze and Turner, of Hunnett, are for colonizing them. "Fighting Indians" would be quite as effective a way of "gitting shet" (vide Deweese) of the elephant.

WHO STRUCK BILLY PATTERSON?—The correspondent, who gave us an account of the pugilistic encounter between "Judge" Tourgee and Windy Billy, omitted to state that Badham, the Radical candidate for Elector in the 5th. District, who generously interposed between the belligerents, was the only man who got pummeled. Let 'em fight it out, next time, B!

THE COOLEST piece of impudence we have seen for some time is the effrontery of W. M. Coleman, "who writes himself Attorney General," in setting up his legal opinion against such eminent lawyers as B. F. Moore, Thomas Bragg, D. G. Fowle, S. F. Phillips and E. G. Haywood! It has its only parallel in the audacity of the little yearling that attempted to butt the steam-engine off the track!

QUERIES.—What induced Holden to rescind his militia order? Did he receive a polite intimation from Gen. Meade that further presumption and usurpation would not be tolerated? Or what?

What has become of Bro. Whitson, and have "collards" declined in price?

Did Coleman give his legal opinion, of "his own motion," or was he directed, by the "Gov.," to manufacture one to order?

BEFORE MR. W. M. Coleman, Attorney General, so-called, presumes to set up his opinion, as a lawyer, against the most eminent jurists in the State, it would be well for him to reflect whether he is safe in his present position, and whether such an exhibition of stupidity may not render it still more precarious. We hear it rumored that some of the officers of the present State government have been clamorous for his resignation.

There is to be a great Democratic Mass Meeting and Barbecue at Elizabethtown, Bladen county, on Thursday, 29th inst.; also at Lilesville, in Anson county, on the 28th and 29th inst., and others at different places in Cumberland and the adjoining counties. There is also to be a big Seymour and Blair meeting and Flag-Raising at Egypt, in Chatham county, on next Tuesday.

From the Fayetteville Eagle

FAYETTEVILLE, Oct. 14.

In the N. C. Standard of 2nd inst. is a letter from Washington City signed "Cherokee," containing many charges against Dr. R. J. Powell. The letter alleges among other things that when Mrs. Tolar was in Washington seeking the release of her husband, W. J. Tolar, Dr. Powell sought an interview with her and finally declared that he must be furnished with money before her husband's release could be secured, &c., &c.

As the subscribers gave Mrs. Tolar the letters of introduction to Dr. P., which caused Mrs. T. to seek an interview with Dr. Powell, they have caused the letter signed "Cherokee" to be submitted to Mrs. Tolar, and she has authorized the statement that that portion which refers to her interview with Dr. P. is wholly and entirely false,—That the Dr. sought no interview with her, but, on the contrary, she sought him. That the Dr. treated her with the utmost politeness and rendered her most valuable service, and at no time ever intimated that he expected or desired any fee or reward whatever, and that she is most grateful to Dr. Powell for his disinterested kindness and attention.

The subscribers have stated that having introduced Mrs. T. to Dr. Powell, the Dr. communicated to them the President's order of release made in the case—that neither in that communication or any other, or any manner whatever, has it ever been hinted to them that Dr. Powell stipulated for pay for his services, or that he had the faintest hope of being rewarded for what he did for Capt. Tolar.

So far as it has come to the knowledge of the subscribers, they add their testimony to that of Mrs. Tolar, that the letter of "Cherokee," as far as it bears on this subject, is false.

THOS. C. FULLER,
JAS. G. COOK.

STATE MATTERS.

We learn, from the Newbern Journal of Commerce, that Col. David Heaton and Col. W. J. Clarke, carpet-bagger and scallawag, dodged an appointment at Big Swift Creek, in Craven, on Saturday last, owing to the fact that Hon. C. C. Clark and Hon. George Green were to be present and reply to them. They were afraid to face the music, and, being military men, both, performed a strategic movement towards the rear, and, when battle was offered, were not on the ground.

The Wilmington Star states that Captain James C. Dobbin, the gallant candidate for Elector in the 3rd Congressional District, is nobly performing his duty in the canvass.—Among his late speeches are those at Blockerville, Clinton and Elizabethtown; all were spoken of and received with great enthusiasm. It is the intention of Captain Dobbin to make an appointment for Wilmington a few days before the election.

The Charlotte Times has not seen the streets of that city so crowded, and such a show of business, for a long time. The wholesale trade in the Western counties has greatly increased. Cotton is coming in freely and bringing remunerative prices.

The Newbern Journal of Commerce, in entering upon a new year, dons a new and handsome dress. It presents a fine appearance. All success!

An atrocious attempt at murder was made by negroes, six miles from Smithfield, last week. A correspondent of the Goldsboro Messenger gives the facts, thus:

"A man by the name of Todd runs a steam saw mill for Messrs. Wilson and Waddell, about one mile from the N.C. R. Road, and is in the habit of going about his work very early; and on yesterday, as is his custom, he went down to the mill with a torch-light to fire up by day or a little before, and when he was in the act of starting the fire, a negro, one of the hands about the mill and well known to Todd, stepped from behind the boiler, saying, as he advanced upon Todd, "you are the damn'd rascal that told me that I would have been hung if I had hit that damn'd little white boy with the axe the other day," and almost instantly striking him a heavy blow with a large stick upon the head, felling him instantly to the earth. This, he, the negro, rapidly followed up with several blows on the forehead and shoulders of poor Todd, breaking both shoulder-blades and bruising him in a manner so horrible as scarcely to leave life. The negro then jumped upon Todd and cut from his pocket a very fine gold watch, worth two hundred dollars perhaps, and his pocket book containing thirty three or four dollars, making off with his booty in the direction of Goldsboro', he having been tracked to Selma, going down the Railroad.—The negro passed under the name of Moses Higgs, is of yellow cast, stout built, about 23 years old, weighs 170 pounds and is 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high; on one hand the little finger and one next to it are webbed or grown together. The watch had marked on the outside the letters "A. G. J."

Speaking at Chapel Hill—Registration Progressing Well.

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Oct. 19, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Thinking that your readers would be pleased to hear from our "deserted village," I beg leave to give a brief account, through your columns, of the things that were done and said here on the 17th inst.

A good number of people, both white and black, came to town, on the day above mentioned, to hear the "speaking," to register, to trade and to talk. Our highly esteemed citizen, Mr. Jones Watson, delivered a long, entertaining and patriotic speech, on the great issues of the day. His speech, as usual, received a hearty approval.

Having concluded, he introduced Mr. Jno. B McRae, of Fayetteville, N. C., who entertained the people, at some length.—Every breath portrayed loyalty, "love of peace, Constitution and Union." He did credit, both to himself and county.

The next speaker was Mr. Jas. T. Crocker, of Northampton county, N. C. Mr. Crocker's speech was interesting, eloquent and highly commendable. He looks like a boy, but speaks like a man. While he was speaking, several remarks were made, such as these: "That is so;" "It's as true as gospel;" "He knows what he is talking about."

When he finished, a few feebly called for Col. Guthrie, Holden's "corn-stalk" Colonel, as a colored Democrat terms him. This same colored Democrat is the negro of the "bequet" notoriety. The Colonel directed his remarks chiefly to the colored people, whom he congratulated on their "freedom," by saying, "Yes, thank God! The Yankees 'set' us all free, and wouldn't we be the veriest fools in the land, to vote for men who would enslave us again?"

Afterwards all dispersed, wondering, "and still the wonder grew, how one small head could contain all he knew." All the white men of this precinct seem to be thoroughly aroused and are registering to a man. We are betting high on the election of Seymour and Blair up this way. Old Orange is all right,—Chapel Hill is all right—and so is

GIMLET.

From the Washington Evening Express.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

After the lapse of several days the result of the October elections in Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana is not yet accurately known. But enough is clearly comprehended to inspire the Democratic and Conservative party with renewed energy, with a certainty of success in November, if they are only true to themselves. Although our late efforts have not been crowned with that entire success hoped for, enough has been accomplished to show the invincibility of the Democracy in a general national contest. The vote in the great States where the elections have just taken place was one of the largest ever given, amounting to 1,500,000, or thereabouts; out of which, with all their expenditures, the possession of both Federal and State offices, the political, literary, and religious press largely in their interest, unscrupulous and adroit in their concoctions of cant and sophistry to make the worse appear the better cause; besides their notorious and undisguised frauds, the whole majority of the Radicals, as claimed in all three of the States, will not equal or exceed 25 000 votes, against 100,000 in the same States in 1864! The great State of our noble leader, Horatio Seymour, will give on the 3d of November a much greater majority than the Radicals claim in those three States. And if we only determine to devote our best energies to the work, those States may yet be redeemed, and their electoral votes counted for Seymour and Blair. The enemy have spent their forces—have exhausted much of their ammunition—and they cannot withstand the onset of the party if we are only united and determined! Then let us close up the ranks, and "move upon the enemy's works" at once!

For the Sentinel.

To the People.

FELLOW CITIZENS:—As friends of the Union and the Constitution, as the friends of honesty and virtue, we appeal to you to rebuke the slander against the honesty and virtue of the people of North Carolina.

You are opposed by a political, oath-bound, dark lantern, midnight party, sworn to keep the secrets and purposes of their party in the dark. Fortunately for the good of honest men, and innocent women and children, some of their wicked purposes have come to light—a little here and a little there, by different members of the dark-lantern conclave, at different times and for different purposes, until what has been revealed is enough to satisfy the minds of all honest men as to their purposes.

We don't intend to deceive you, honest men of North Carolina; neither do we intend that you shall be deceived by our enemies, if you will hear facts and truths.

We will state, upon the authority of the Radical party, that they are in favor of forcing upon the people of North Carolina negro suffrage, when they refuse the same right to the negro in the Northern States. The second section of the dark-lantern, midnight, oath-bound party platform reads thus:

"The guarantee of Congress of equal suffrage to all loyal men at the South was demanded by every consideration of public safety, of gratitude and of justice, and must be maintained, while the question of suffrage in all loyal States properly belongs to the people of those States."

In 1867, the people of the States of Ohio, Pennsylvania and other States, North, decided against negro suffrage at home. In 1868, in the face of the fact that they refused the negro the right of suffrage at home, they now say the people of North Carolina shall submit to it, by the election of those who force it upon us.

The Radical party is guilty of a gross slander against the honesty of the people of North Carolina. Hear what Deweese, the candidate for Congress in the Fourth District, says upon the subject, in a speech made by him in Congress, in reply to Mr. Brooks, of New York: "I tell him (says Deweese,) that down South they do not allow you to stay in the Democratic party, unless you rob and steal. That Democracy with us (the Radical party) means treason, crime, bloodshed—and everything known to the criminal law."

Fellow-citizens! Will you support any man for any office, who has been guilty of such a deliberate, foul mouthed, infamous falsehood against your character at home and abroad?

We come next to the Legislative Address, published and signed by eighty-eight members of the so called Republican party.—Here, fellow-citizens, the heart sickens and the blood chills at the atrocity of the crime recommended by them in that address.—Read it for yourselves. Look on the eighth page of that address, and you will see and read what is enough to chill the blood of even the high-way robber or midnight assassin:

"Did it never occur to you, ye gentlemen of education, property and character, ye men, and, especially, ye women, who never received anything from these colored people but services, kindness and protection—did it never occur to you, that these same people, who are so very bad, will not be willing to sleep in the cold, when your houses are denied them, merely because they will not vote as you do? That they may not be willing to starve, while they are willing to work for bread? Did it never occur to you, that revenge, which is so sweet to you, may be as sweet to them? Hear this, if nothing else you will hear: Did it never occur to you that if you kill their children with hunger, they will kill your children with fear? Did it never occur to you that if you good people maliciously determine that they shall have no shelter, they may determine you shall have none?"

The rapacious appetite of this secret, political, oath-bound, dark-lantern, midnight, Union League Radical party seems not yet to be satisfied. Hear what they say in an editorial, under the head of "Retaliation," in the North Carolina Standard of the 26th of August, 1868:

"Of course, it is not to be supposed that men, women and children will starve to death, while corn is still standing in the fields, and while hogs and cattle are not kept under lock and key."

Last and worse than all, hear what that midnight conclave, the embodiment of the worst passions of man in his savage state and the brute combined, says, in the organ of that party, on the 19th of September, 1868, speaking of our mothers, wives and daughters:

"Wherever else you work, don't forget to work among the rebel women. And don't hesitate to throw your arms around their necks, now and then, when their husbands are not around, and give them a good ——! They all like it, and the Yankeer you are the better it will take."

Again: "Scallawags and carpet-baggers, you are all good looking, and they know it, but, with native modesty, like New England girls, they like to be approached first."

Again, they say, in the day time, to the fathers, husbands, and sons, we would enlarge upon all that is contained in the address and letter, (meaning the Legislative Address that we have referred to, and Pearson's letter,) but under the soft moon and bright stars, we would talk of other things, and, before we left, would "win them to our arms, if not to our party and our principles."

Fellow citizens! Notwithstanding the oath of the midnight conclave of the Union League Radical party, five of their wicked purposes have been revealed by their own members:

1. They are in favor of and have fastened negro suffrage upon the people of North Carolina, without their consent, and against the Constitution of the United States and North Carolina, as is shown in the second section of the platform of the Radical party.

2. They have slandered the honest people of the State, as is proved by the speech of Deweese in Congress.

3. They advise arson and murder, as is shown in the Legislative Address, (page 8,) signed by eighty-eight of the midnight cabal.

4. They advise stealing corn out of the fields, and hogs and cattle when not under lock or key. See Raleigh Standard, August 26th, 1868.

5. Lastly, and worse than all, they slander our women and advise scallawags and carpet-baggers, either white or black, to insult our mothers, wives and daughters, and that under the soft moon and bright stars. See Raleigh Standard, Sept. 10th, 1868.

Fellow-citizens, we have accomplished what we promised you; we have proven to you, by their own witnesses, high in position, what we charge. We now ask you whether you can, with the facts before you, endorse the wicked purposes of that party at the ballot box?

The whole case is before you. The verdict is yours; you can render it in favor of negro suffrage, theft, arson, murder, slander against the fair character of North Carolinians, and the insult to our mothers, wives and daughters, or you can rebuke them at the ballot box, by voting for Seymour and Blair, the Union and the Constitution!

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

FROM NEW YORK—ADDRESS FROM THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21, M.

The National Democratic Committee has issued an address, which makes no allusion to any charge of candidates. It says: "We are charged by the Radical party—the party of violence and usurpation, which, for the last four years, to prolong its own existence, has set at naught the Constitution and the fundamental principles of our Government—with intending revolution and defiance of the established laws. The accusation is unfounded and absurd. It cannot be entertained, for a moment, by an intelligent voter, who has even the most superficial knowledge of the history of this country. The Democratic party can proudly point to every page of its record.—It has never violated a single obligation of the fundamental compact, by which these United States entered into the family of nations. Its watchword, in peace as in war, has been, and will always be, 'THE UNION, THE CONSTITUTION AND THE LAWS;' and no man, nor any set of men, however high they might be placed by the suffrages of their fellow-citizens, can expect to receive the support of this great Conservative party in any revolutionary attempt against the established laws. The ballot-box and the supreme will of the American people are the only means of redress, to which we look."

FROM SOUTH CAROLINA—GEN. WADE HAMPTON ON THE SITUATION.

CHARLESTON, Oct. 21, M.

The Daily News, this morning, publishes a letter from General Wade Hampton, in reply to a Wisconsin lawyer, who requests him, in view of the wide spread misrepresentation of his course, to define his position as to the issues, results and consequences of the war.

General Hampton says: "The main issues involved in the war were secession and slavery,—the first, the primary one; the latter, brought in at a later period. In regard to these I adopt fully and without reservation the principles announced by the late National Democratic Convention in New York, and, in the words of the platform promulgated there, I consider these questions as settled forever. I accept this as the result accomplished by the war, and as its logical and legitimate consequence. This I have done from the day the war closed, and I have counselled our people to look upon it in the same light.

I was strongly in favor of the action taken by this State, conferring on the negro equal civil rights with the white man; and, more than a year ago, I advocated the policy of giving to him, as soon as we had the power to do so legitimately, suffrage, based on qualifications.

The Democratic Convention, held here in April last, recognized him as an integral part of the body politic, and declared that it would, when our party came into power, grant him partial suffrage. The State Central Club has just reaffirmed this declaration, and I have no doubt but that this declaration is sustained by a vast majority of the white citizens of the State.

We regard the Reconstruction acts as unconstitutional, but we look for their overthrow, not to violence, but, in the language of a resolution unanimously adopted by the Democratic party in Convention assembled, "to constitutional agencies and peaceful remedies alone."

We invoked a decision on the constitutionality of these acts, from the only tribunal competent to pronounce on them—the Supreme Court of the United States—and we were prepared, in good faith, to abide by that decision. It may not be inappropriate, here, to correct a misrepresentation, so widely spread by the Radical papers, touching these acts. I have been charged with having "dictated" that portion of the Democratic platform relating to Reconstruction. This charge I have more than once denied, and I do so again, emphatically. The acts which I spoke of the words, "unconstitutional, revolutionary and void," as being my plank in the platform, referred to them as constituting the plank to which I, as well as any other Southern man, could cling for safety."

The letter concludes as follows:

"If the people of the North wish to build up a strong and lasting Union, let them be magnanimous and generous to the South. Let them confide more fully, than they have done, in the honor of our people; and they will meet a cordial and heartfelt response. The future destiny of the Republic is in the hands of the North, and upon their action it depends, whether there is again to be a Union, based on fraternal feelings, or one held together by the iron hand of military rule."

Our Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21, P. M.

The order from the War Department, assigning Inspector Generals, includes Gen. E. H. Luddington to the Department of the South. Assistant Inspector Generals will be selected from officers who have served ten years. All others are ordered to their regiments, as soon as relieved.

Montgomery Blair departed westward this morning.

Rosecranz, having received final instructions, has left for New York. The date for his departure to Mexico has not yet transpired.

Gov. Seymour speaks at Buffalo, to-morrow, and thence proceeds to Pennsylvania and the West.

Judge Chase leaves in a few days for Savannah, Ga., to hold Court.

Included in General Reynolds' instructions to Registrars of voters, in Texas, is the following:

"No amnesty or pardon entitles the applicant to register, and all persons should be rejected, who may claim to have been coerced to engage in the rebellion. If it appears that such persons sought, held or exercised any office or positions of profit or honor, under the Confederate States, or either of the States in rebellion, the removal of disabilities by Congress entitles the applicant to register, unless disfranchised by crime."

To-day's World is silent regarding the change of candidates. It applauds Seymour's determination to speak.

The official Republican majority in Maine is now (at this late day!) stated to be 19,060.

FROM NEW ORLEANS—THE LEGISLATURE—MORE BEAUTIES OF RADICALISM!

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 21, P. M.

The Legislature adjourned sine die, at midnight, last night. Among the last acts of the House, was to reconsider the vote sustaining the Governor's veto of the five million City Bond Bill, and to pass the bill over the veto; also to eject another white member, elected by over three hundred majority, and to put in his place a negro.

In the Senate, when the veto of the City Bond Bill came up, a Senator caused to be read a communication, offering two thousand dollars as a bribe for the passage of the bill over the veto. It was also stated, further, that the sum of $50,000 had been offered. The vote was then taken and the veto sustained—nine voting to pass over the veto and nineteen against it.

COME TO

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP. LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at E. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

AN ACT

IN RELATION TO THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF CLERKS OF SUPERIOR COURTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That as this act will be incorporated in the general act respecting the practice and procedure of the Courts, required to be reported to the General Assembly at its present session, by the commissioners appointed for that purpose, it will be printed in the general act and not elsewhere among the acts of this General Assembly, unless otherwise hereafter directed.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of State is required to have the third section of this act, and that portion relating to the Superior Court Clerks, printed at least weekly in four papers published in this State, and the sum necessary for that purpose is hereby appropriated from any monies in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 3. The terms of the several Superior Courts of this State shall begin in each year at the times hereinafter stated, and shall continue to be held for two weeks (Sundays and legal holidays excepted,) unless the business shall be sooner disposed of.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION!

THE PLATFORM.

The Democratic party in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the labo rer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the pensioner and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of the civil authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that sacred pledge under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as is in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ter States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partizan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies, it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed, free government will be inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjugated people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any state of this right or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and it sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely obliterated, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of coequal States; and that we regard the pretended acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must never be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention. It pulters in no double sense—its language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the false cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such states, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful government. And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings as well as the burdens of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Au., 14, 1868.

NORTH CAROLINA PAPERS.

DAILY AND WEEKLY JOURNAL, WILMINGTON, N. C.

This is the oldest Daily in the State, a leading Democratic Journal, located in the largest commercial city in the State, and is a large and ably conducted newspaper.
